PRICE FIVE CENTS

Citizens Prepared To Pay, Says Head of Treasury Today

Morgenthau Witness at House Committee Ses- sion on New Taxes

Washington, April 24.—(AP)—Secretary Morgenthau asked congress today for $3,500,000,000 new taxes, greater defense production, reduced non-defense spending, and safeguards against profiteering.

"We are faced with a greater challenge than any in the history of the republic," the treasury head told the house ways and means committee. "It calls for a much greater response than has yet been made."

"The American people are prepared to make such a response and to make it willingly. x x x

"How much is it worth to be a free man living in a free land? x x x The American people are willing to pay that price."

Morgenthau made no specific recommendations about how the new taxes should be raised in his formal statement. He said others would present the treasury's viewpoint.

These treasury proposals have been reported at the Capitol to provide steep increases in income surtaxes which may force many persons to pay six times as much income tax as before, and also to put either new or additional taxes on soft drinks, liquor, cigarettes, gasoline and many other commodities.

Terming the proposed tax increase "unprecedented," Morgenthau said "the new taxes will seem a small price to pay for the security of the nation to be insured by the defense program."

Together with existing taxes which may make the nation's total federal tax bill in the next fiscal year (beginning July 1) about $12,600,000,000, the secretary said "we shall find ourselves spending less than 15 per cent of our national income for the national safety."

Would Cut Non-Defense Items

In the course of questioning after his general statement, Morgenthau expressed the opinion "that it is perfectly possible to cut non-defense items to the extent of $1,000,000,000 for the fiscal year starting July 1."

The secretary said that the place he would "look first" would be at the agriculture department appropriation bill which includes $500,000,000 for conservation payments. He referred also to the fact that the senate had increased the fund proposed for parity payments to farmers from $212,000,000 passed by the house to $150,000,000.

Morgenthau suggested also that cuts might be made in appropriations for the Civilian Conservation Corps, now about $300,000,000 and for the National Youth Administration, now about $370,000,000.

Morgenthau described the new tax program in these points:

"First of all, it presents a method of paying as we go for a reasonable proportion of our expenditures."

All Sections Would Pay

"Secondly, it is designed so that all sections of the people shall bear their fair share of the burden."

"Third, it will help to mobilize our resources for defense by reducing the amount of money that the public can spend for comparatively less important things."

"And finally, it is designed to prevent a general rise in prices by keeping the volume of monetary purchasing power from out-running production."

As far as the government is concerned, Morgenthau said, the nation must continue to take care of the needy in need of relief and other.

Powder Plant in Indiana Greatest

Charlestown, Ind., April 24.—(AP)—The world's biggest powder plant, which sprung up in less than eight months in the southern Indiana countryside, began operation today outside this busy defense boom town, 23 days ahead of schedule.

E. I. du Pont de Nemours, Inc., of Wilmington, Del., started the first of six production lines in an $86,548,000 factory it is building on 5,300 acres outside this town. It will employ nearly 10,000 and turn out 600,000 pounds of smokeless powder a day.

Lieut. Col. R. E. Hardy, construction and operating officer, said the builders had beaten the May 17 deadline for the beginning of production by expanding the construction force last week to a high of 26,756 workers. He said the plant at capacity can supply an army of over 1,000,000.

The war department gave the company a contract last July 17 to build and run the plant. Ground was broken Sept. 2. Du Pont gets a flat fee for the construction and operation and will be paid for the powder by the pound.

The first batch of the powder, made by treating cotton with acid and then drying it, will come off the line by the week-end, Colonel Hardy said.

Nothing Heard of Missing Palmyra

Description of Manager of Ortgiesen Estate is Broadcast

A complete description of Paul Kesselring, 45, well known Palmyra township farmer, was being broadcast over a Chicago radio station today in an effort to obtain some information concerning the manager of the Charles Ortgiesen farm estate, who disappeared suddenly and mysteriously Tuesday afternoon. Members of the family were without any word from the missing man today and the only information that had been received came from an acquaintance of Kesselring who reported having seen the missing man driving west through Prairieville early Tuesday afternoon.

Kesselring who is manager of the large farm estate of Charles Ortgiesen, prominent Milwaukee, Wis., shoe manufacturer, owner of several farms in Palmyra township, told a hired man Tuesday afternoon that he would be gone for a short time and drove out of the yard in a 1928 model Buick sedan. A new car belonging to the Kesselring family was in the garage when he left.

Had Less Than $50

No particular importance was connected with his departure from the farm at that time, as it was known that he had planned to go to Amboy to obtain chicks from a hatchery, and when he did not return at 4 o'clock, it was presumed that he had gone to Amboy. It was not until about 6 o'clock in the evening, when he failed to return home to supervise the later afternoon activities about the farm buildings, that members of his family became alarmed.

About 7:30 o'clock in the evening Mrs. Kesselring came to Dixon and reported her husband's mysterious disappearance to the local police and the sheriff's office, then went to Polo where she imparted the information to the police of that place. They secured the co-operation of Sergeant Edward Mahan of the state police force, who broadcast a description of the missing farm manager and the car he was driving over the state police radio.

Sharp Cut in Illinois Draft Quota for May Due to Lack of Facilities

Chicago, April 24.—(AP)—Lack of sufficient army facilities and equipment in the southeast section of the nation where Illinois selectees are being sent for training accounts for the sharp reduction in the state's draft quota for May, state Selective Service Director Paul G. Armstrong said.

Next month's quota, Armstrong said yesterday, would stand at about 8,790 men, compared with the 15,500 called up this month. The heavy April inductions, he explained, severely taxed the facilities of camps to which Illinoisans were sent. He predicted a heavier draft quota for June although it probably will not reach April's figure. Nominal quotas are in prospect for July and August.

Illinois' first year quota, originally fixed at 62,223 men, was due by June 30. About half of that number now are in service. Illinois manufacturers and other

Report Navy Makes Plans for Defense Patrol 1,000 Miles

Would Ease Strain on Life Line of Great Britain, Belief

Washington, April 24.—(AP)—A major extension of hemisphere defense strategy—the patrol of the North Atlantic half way to Europe—was reported planned today by the high command of the United States Navy.

The creation of such a broad security one might have the incidental effect of relieving some of the strain on part of Britain's most important supply line but, in the absence of details, the full significance of such a policy was a moot question.

Officials here gave no encouragement to the reports of the widened defense patrol, but the informed quarters where they originated cited the statement of New York's Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia that provision had been made for off shore defense beginning at a line 1,000 miles out to sea.

LaGuardia, speaking as chairman of the joint U. S.-Canadian defense board, made his assertion during an address at Ottawa yesterday. The circumstances led to the belief here that he spoke with White House approval.

Stephen Early, White House press secretary, told reporters that he did not see any difference between what LaGuardia had said about patrolling 1,000 miles out to sea and what had been said in piece meal fashion by President Roosevelt in recent months.

Early emphasized that he was speaking entirely of neutrality patrols, and not convoys. He said the President had said that the patrol would be "well out," adding he believed Roosevelt had at one time mentioned 1,000 miles.

LaGuardia Quoted

It was pointed out that LaGuardia made a hurried visit here on Tuesday for a conference with Roosevelt before departing for Canada. It was likewise considered important that before making his address at Ottawa he was quoted as saying that it would contain a line giving "the whole answer" to the question of how far the United States would go in conveying war supplies to Britain.

LaGuardia spoke at the St. George's Day luncheon of the Canadian Club and Canadian Federation of Mayors. His words were: "Off shore defense, as we understand it, is to defend our shores at three hours' distance from the farthest point of either the Canadian or the United States coast."

"And when I say three hours I mean three hours by airplane doing 333 miles an hour. That is our St. George's Day message to the people of England."

The reaction of some Canadian circles was that LaGuardia was forecasting the start of U. S. convoys as far as the mid Atlantic. This would permit the release of British empire naval units now doing convoy duty in the western half of the North Atlantic and thereby reinforce the flotillas operating in the eastern half where most shipping has been lost.

One Knotty Question

Informed quarters here, however, did not go that length in their interpretations. They kept to the expression, "off shore defense patrol," but they acknowledged that this might help to keep German submarines or surface raiders away from shipping lanes in the western Atlantic.

One knotty question that went unanswered was what action a patrol vessel would be expected to take to enforce the defense zone in the event it encountered a raider operating against shipping. It was recalled that none of the beligerents observed the 300 mile neutral zone proclaimed for the hemisphere by the Pan-American

Las Cruces, N. M., April 24.—(AP)—And so they were married and lived happily—for about 15 minutes.

County Clerk Manuel J. Chavez tells the story of an El Paso couple, married Tuesday.

Yesterday the bridegroom returned to Chavez's office to ask that the marriage license not be recorded—because 15 minutes after the ceremony the bride disappeared with a new car, $100 in cash and her wedding outfit, all gifts from the groom.

Chavez was touched, but the marriage went into the records.

Tax on Cigarets is Adopted by House

Strenuous Democratic Opposition Defeated 112 to 17 Vote

Springfield, Ill., April 24.—(AP)—Over the strenuous objections of a small Democratic bloc, the Illinois House today passed the bill proposed by Governor Green to place a state tax of two cents a package on cigarettes.

House Democratic leaders took their first determined stand against the governor's $45,000,000 cigarette-oil-liquor tax program during heated debate but administration leaders predicted final legislative approval in the next week or two, after many Democrats joined Republicans in supporting the cigarette levy. The bill now goes to the Senate.

The Senate yesterday passed and sent to the House the administration bills for a three per cent tax on the state's new oil production and to double the present taxes on liquor and beer. Governor Green proposed the cigarette, oil and liquor taxes to offset loss of revenue resulting from the administration plan to let the sales tax drop to two per cent on July 1, $20,000,000 Saving.

Majority Leader Frederick W. Rennie, sponsor of the cigarette tax bill, said "I believe the public will approve this program to reduce the sales tax to two per cent, thereby resulting in a net savings of $20,000,000 for the biennium even with the enactment of new taxes."

Minority Leader William Vickers of Pontiac attacked the proposed cigarette tax as "absolutely unnecessary" and charged the Green administration was "just going to put on more state payrolls to collect the tax."

The official rollcall showed the vote was 112 to 17 for passage, with 39 Democrats joining the Republicans. No Republican representative voted against the bill. Seventy-seven votes were needed for passage.

Rennie said that 27 other states levy cigarettes and pointed out that all of the states bordering Illinois, except Missouri, levied such taxes.

The tax, which would be collected by selling stamps to be affixed to each package of cigarettes, would become effective July 1 if approved by the Senate. The governor estimated that the levy would yield about $10,000,000 a year.

Springfield, Ill., April 24.—(AP)—The Gunning Commission created by the 61st General Assembly in 1939 to supervise the establishment of a new security unit of the Illinois training school for boys at Sheridan, in LaSalle county, may continue intact for the next two years as an advisory body on youth delinquency problems.

The commission was urged yesterday by State Welfare Director Rodney H. Brandon to seek extension of its existence and broaden its purpose to include "coordination and cooperation with other departments and branches of the state government to search for the solution of social problems arising from the delinquency of youth."

Walnut Boy, Aged 12, is Fatally Hurt on Hunting Outing

Francis Odell Victim of Tragic Death Late Wed- nesday Afternoon

(Telegraph Special Service)

Walnut, April 24.—Francis Odell, 12, son of Kelly Odell, Jr. of Walnut, was fatally injured while on a pigeon hunting outing with three companions—his cousin, Robert Odell, 12, Frank Tungate, 17, and Robert Durham, 11—on the farm of Melvin Durham, father of Robert, southwest of Walnut, at about 5:15 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The boys, armed with a 12 gauge shotgun and a .22 calibre rifle, had spent the afternoon hunting pigeons and later had gone to a creek on the Durham farm, where they spent some time shooting at objects floating on the water, the shotgun having been discharged but once. At about 5 o'clock one of the boys, not knowing there was another shell in the shotgun, snapped the trigger and the charge entered Francis' left shoulder and chest.

Summoned Help

The frightened boys ran to the barn on the Durham farm where a Fordham, Francis' maternal grandfather, and Gene Jacobson were at work. They rushed to the wounded lad, but life was apparently extinct when they arrived. An inquest was conducted here last evening by Coroner Arthur Meyers, the jury, composed of Ed Wilson, A. L. Stickle, L. G. Carpenter, William Larson, S. G. Drenann and Harold Wallis, finding that death was accidental.

Francis is survived by his father, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Odell, Sr.; his maternal grandfather, maternal grandmother, Mrs. John Mercer of Tiskilwa; and two brothers, Harry and Charles, both younger than he.

Body of Murdered Baby Found Today in Sterling Movie

Chief of Police J. D. Van Bibber of the Dixon police department was today cooperating with Sterling police in an attempt to locate a woman, who sometime last night murdered a new born baby in the women's rest room of a Sterling theater. Doctors throughout northwest Illinois were being contacted by police officials in the widespread effort to locate the woman.

Dick Eaglin, janitor in a Sterling theater, discovered the body cramped in a stool in the women's rest room this morning before 7 o'clock. Police were notified and went to the theater to investigate. The body was described as being that of a male child weighing about ten pounds, with heavy black hair. Examination of the body disclosed a gash about one and one-half inches in length along the right side of the throat, toward the front. There were bruises on the head and two small gashes on the right foot. The body had been wrapped in a towel and placed in the bowl after the injuries had been inflicted.

The body was removed to the Melvin funeral home at Sterling where an inquest was scheduled to be conducted by Coroner C. M. Frye this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Police were reported to have theorized that the woman may have secreted herself in the theater until after the doors were locked last night and then to have found her way to the rest room. It was stated that the rest room is inspected by an employee of the theater before closing each night and that last night the room was unoccupied before the play house closed.

Washington, April 24.—(AP)—Wayne Coy, of Indiana, has been appointed by President Roosevelt as his special assistant and liaison officer between the White House and the Office of Emergency Management.

The White House also announced today that Roosevelt had put Harry L. Hopkins on the White House payroll at $10,000 a year as supervisor of the leased land program.

The OEM, a White House adjunct, is the top administrative agency over OPM and other emergency activities. Coy will receive $9,000 a year.

He will take over the duties now performed by William H. Reynolds, presidential administrative assistant.

Probers Ask Rule on Contributions

Barrett Asked if State Employees Who "Gave" Can Be Fired

Springfield, Ill., April 24.—(AP)—The legislative committee investigating state civil service called upon Attorney General George F. Barrett today for a legal opinion which may determine whether thousands of civil service employees can be fired for contributing to Democratic campaign funds in recent years.

Testimony from several collectors of "Two Per Cent Club" political assessments against state employees' salaries was heard by the committee in a stormy hearing yesterday afternoon marked by verbal clashes between the committee chairman, Rep. R. J. Brandon (R-Centralia), and Senator A. L. Marowitz, Chicago Democrat.

So heated were the exchanges that Brandon twice threatened to forcibly eject Marowitz from the hearing. The clashes came when Marowitz, one of the two Democratic minority members of the committee, sought to cross-examine witnesses.

The decision to ask Barrett to rule formally on whether a civil service worker can legally donate money to a campaign fund followed Assistant Attorney General Spivey's "curbstone opinion" that such contributions were a violation of the civil service act.

The action immediately aroused speculation as to whether it would lead to wholesale dismissals of Democratic holdovers in state jobs.

Records Destroyed

Spivey attended the hearing yesterday as an official observer. His informal opinion came as a surprise since the Civil Service Commission previously has held contributions were legal so long as civil service employees were not coerced by their superiors.

Miss Pauline Rithmiller, secretary of the Democratic state committee chairman, testified about 7,000 state employees contributed regularly to the Democratic campaign funds in 1935 and 1940. She said records of the payments were destroyed "right after the election" last November in which Democrats were defeated for most state offices.

Pressed for names of campaign fund collectors, Miss Rithmiller said the only one she could remember was T. P. Sullivan. Sullivan was supervisor of parolees under the late Governor Horner and was appointed chief of the

Former Capone Gangster Questioned in Bludgeon-Murder in Chicago Last Eve

Chicago, April 24.—(AP)—Murphy Humphreys, former Capone gangster and a figure in the cleaning and dyeing business, was detained for questioning today about the fatal assault on Anton Gorzak, 34, a driver for a cleaning firm.

Gorzak, father of four small children, was clubbed yesterday while calling at the south side shop of a customer, Abraham Rubin.

Two unidentified men entered the shop. One, armed with a pistol, announced "This is a stickup." They ordered Gorzak, Rubin, and an employee to lie face down on the floor.

The second hoodlum then took a club from under his coat and beat Gorzak into unconsciousness. The victim died several

Rearguard Seeks to Check Blitzkrieg as British Leave Greece

The War Today!

By DEWITT MacKENZIE

Even as the final throes of defeat grip the allies in the battle of Greece the London press is raising the call for an accounting of Britain's whole Balkan adventure, and this is being echoed in Australia, whose sons have played such a heroic and bloody part in holding the right wing of the allied line.

Certainly there are some points that can stand a bit of clearing up. One of the chief questions which appears to have been puzzling America was rather well summed up by a highly placed newspaperman who flung at me with some ascerbic:

"What I want to know is why the deuce the British got mixed up in this Balkan mess when they must have known from the start that the chances were they would be smashed."

Well, that's a fair query, so let's see what we can make of it. First off, strange though it seems, the British participation has been largely for political rather than military reasons. It's true that the odds were greatly against the allies being able to stop the Hitlerite war-machine, although there was always the chance that luck might give them a break, and permit the opening up of a new front against the Germans.

However, the fundamental reason for Britain's action lay in the fact that she had given her bond to aid Greece against aggression. The Greeks didn't need any help to give the fascists a beating, but when the nazis started to pour a million men down through the mountain passes the Hellenes were ready for the British to fulfill their obligation.

Now if there are cynical readers who believed that the English would lose their word only if it served their own purpose, there is this to consider: What would world opinion have said of Britons if they had run out on their little ally? The answer is that it might have cost John Bull every friend he had.

Anyway, John kept his bond. Things had been going so well in Libya that he could release troops for the Balkan show.

He appears to have landed some sixty to eighty thousand men with full equipment in Greece and was preparing to send many more when without warning the German started their whirlwind conquest of the Libyan territory which the British had so recently conquered. That halted the sending of more troops to Greece, although it's doubtful whether the outcome would have been much different had the British been able to provide double the number.

The credit side of the allied balance sheet does look slim, but if you take the trouble to examine it more closely you will find some surprising items which are favorable. For instance:

Herr Hitler has been forced against his will to fight for some thing which he had expected to get for nothing. Without the Yugoslav, Greek and British resistance would have been able to achieve his conquest of these Balkan states by telephone. He is now trying to do with Turkey and Spain.

Tuesday, May 13, Will Be Circus Day in Dixon

Youngsters, and oldsters also, of the vicinity of Dixon, will wait with interest for this date—Tuesday, May 13th. It will be circus day in Dixon, the first circus of any consequence to appear here during the past two seasons. City Clerk Wayne C. Smith received word today that the Russell Brothers, largest of motorized circuses, now appearing in the state of Ohio, will pay a visit to Dixon on that date.

A week ago it was announced that Russell Brothers had included Dixon on their spring itinerary, but the date had not been determined. The circus will erect its tents on the Scholl lots south of Seventh street on Van Buren avenue.

hours later. Rubin and his employee were not harmed.

Investigators learned that the Rubin shop recently switched its business from the Klever-Shampay Cleaners to the firm for which Gorzak worked, the Republic Cleaners. They also learned that Gorzak recently was warned by a group of unidentified men to stop calling at the Rubin shop.

Assistant State's Attorney Francis McCurrie ordered Humphreys and his wife seized for questioning after learning, he said, that Mrs. Humphreys owned 49 per cent interest in the Klever-Shampay Cleaners.

Mrs. Humphreys was released after questioning but her husband was ordered held for further investigation. Humphreys denied he was associated with the Klever-Shampay Cleaners.

Bombers Rain Death and Destruction on Transports

(By The Associated Press)

British expeditionary troops were reported still fighting desperately today in the Thermopylae sector, 100 miles north of Athens, in what was apparently a rearguard action to check Germany's blitzkrieg armies until the main body of the B. E. F. has embarked from southern Greece.

The Berlin newspaper Allgemeine Zeitung asserted that the German army was approaching Athens by way of Thebes, about 35 miles northwest of the Greek capital as the crow flies.

In London, the British radio quoted Australia's Acting Prime Minister A. W. Fadden as saying: "There is no ground for hope that the fighting in Greece can take a turn to our advantage."

"We are seeing the last stages of a very gallant rearguard action."

German aviators described scenes of the wildest confusion as nazi Stuka dive bombers rained death and destruction on troop-jammed British transports.

Claim Heavy Sea Losses

Berlin sources asserted that at least 160,000 tons of ships had already been sunk, and an official Greek communique acknowledged that assaults by waves of screaming Stukas had inflicted "considerable damage to ships and other installations."

"While the fall of Athens and the end of the 19-day-old battle of the Balkans appeared imminent, authoritative quarters in London insisted that B. E. F. troops were clinging stubbornly to defense positions in the Thermopylae zone."

It was in this historic sector, the scene of bloody strife 2400 years ago, that the Germans claimed yesterday their panzer columns had smashed the British rearguard and plunged on toward Athens.

Nazis Give Few Details

Hitler's high command gave few details of the climatic struggle and made no claim to a major drive through the allies' "last ditch" defenses.

"In a fight with British rearguards, we succeeded in breaking into Thermopylae positions, which were situated in especially favorable terrain," the German communique said.

A nazi spokesman yesterday had asserted that the Germans "annihilated" the British rearguard.

British Middle East headquarters in Cairo reported tersely that B. E. F. troops "yesterday were in contact with the enemy, but no important engagements took place."

Dispatches from Athens said that, despite the tidings from the battlefield, there was no indication of a mass exodus from the Hellenic capital, already abandoned by King George II and his government, who fled yesterday to the Isle of Crete.

Had No Anti-Tank Guns

Greece's high command, explaining the collapse of the Greek armies in the northwest after they had been cut off by German panzer columns, summed up that debacle in seven words:

"These forces did not possess anti-tank guns."

Premier Mussolini's high command listed 6,000 Italian troops killed or wounded, including 400 officers, in the final offensive against the Greeks.

Over 1400 Draftees From Illinois Join Troops at Forrest

Some of Them Exhibit Bewilderment as They Arrive in Camp

Camp Forrest, Tenn., April 24—(AP)—More than 1,400 Illinois selectees moved into Camp Forrest this week from farmland, factories, offices and store counters scattered all the way from Chicago to Cairo.

As the newest group of selectees arrived yesterday, all wore expressions of curiosity that seemed to ask, "where do we go from here?"

In their newly issued uniforms, the only clues to their civilian status were their handbags and suitcases, lying at their feet.

Sleeper coaches had brought them from Camp Grant and Fort Sheridan where they went for physical examinations and inoculations and to get uniforms.

Some had the newest in air travel luggage. Others had battered bags, mouldy with age and tied together with twine. One youngster carried an expensive set of golf clubs. There were radios of all styles and prices.

Virtual Strangers

Each one was virtually a stranger to the others. A look of bewilderment on the faces of those who had never travelled far from home was unmistakable.

There was hardly a full-fledged smile until the youths moved off in trucks, pointing out to one another the sights of the camp on the two mile journey to their assigned regimental areas. Gradually the formal stiffness wore off as they settled down under the guidance of their company commanders and top sergeants.

Personnel cards of the Illinois selectees showed most of them came from average, though varied, paying jobs. Most of them received from $20 to $30 weekly in the positions they left, although some received less than $10 and two or three as much as $70.

Chicago Council Bars Liquor Sales in Drug, Grocery Stores Oct. 31

Chicago, April 24—(AP)—After Oct. 31 Chicagoans won't be able to buy their liquors at the corner grocery or drug store.

The city council adopted an ordinance yesterday prohibiting the sale of liquor in any establishment wherein other commodities were sold.

The measure will not prohibit the sale of liquor in hotel dining rooms and similar places provided it is consumed on the premises.

In the past, women bought a winter's potato supply at one time, but now the favorite unit of purchase is a 15-pound sack, according to a study made at Ohio State University.

Amboy Man's Herd of Holsteins Tops Producers of Fat

Urbana, Ill., April 24—(AP)—Sixty-one pounds of butterfat was produced on the average by each of the 13 purebred Holstein cows owned by J. J. Cole, Amboy, for the highest production of the past month in dairy herd improvement associations in Illinois, it was announced today.

Leading association for March was Marshall-Putnam. Thomas White, tester for the association, reports that the 109 cows in nine herds averaged 35.1 pounds of butterfat, compared with the state average of 30.5 pounds.

Other leading herds among the first 10, as reported by C. S. Rhode, and J. G. Cash, dairy extension specialists of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, were ten purebred and grade Holsteins owned by Kane County Home, Batavia, 58.4 pounds butterfat; 13 purebred Holsteins of Mammoser Brothers, Teutopolis, 58.3; ten purebred Holsteins of Guy Borop & Son, Walnut, 55.2; 21 purebred Holsteins of Maywood Farm, Hebron, 55.1; ten purebred and grade Holsteins of Oscar Newberg, Pectonica, 54.4; ten purebred and grade Brown Swiss of William Eisenhower, Lena, 54.2; ten purebred and grade Holsteins of Simon Marner, Arthur, 52.3; 12 grade Jerseys of George Pitts, McLean, 50.9, and 14 purebred Holsteins of Rush & Schneider, Orangeville, 50.5.

Trailing close behind the Marshall-Putnam Association among the first 10 were Cook's 27 herds, 34.8 pounds; Livingston's 26 herds, 34.6; Lee's 27 herds, 34.5; Stephenson No. 1's 30 herds, 34.4; Tazewell No. 2's herds, 34.4; Effingham No. 1's 27 herds, 34.2; Winnebago No. 3's 29 herds, 34; Bond's 24 herds, 33.8 pounds, and Stephenson's No. 2's 29 herds, 33.7 pounds.

2,529 Bankruptcy Cases on Federal Dockets in Chicago Investigated

Chicago, April 24—(AP)—United States District Attorney J. Albert Wall announced last night that he had ordered an investigation into the administration of 2,529 bankruptcy cases on the dockets of the federal district court.

Several millions of dollars of assets are represented in the bankruptcies which include six railroads, 85 large corporations, 330 smaller concerns, and hundreds of personal cases.

Wall, who said he had ordered representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation into the inquiry, declared that "I intend to start with the office of referee in bankruptcy and follow whatever leads develop."

GEORGE WASHINGTON SAID:
"Excessive partiality for one foreign nation and excessive dislike of another cause those whom they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to veil and even second the arts of influence on the other. Real patriots who may resist the intrigues of the favorite are liable to become suspected and odious, while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people to surrender their interests." From the Farewell Address.

A Thought for Today
Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things.—
Psalms 72:18.
To receive honestly is the best thanks for a good thing.—George MacDonald.

Convoys—and Another Problem
Senator Charles W. Tobey of New Hampshire has called for a frank statement as a matter of "plain honesty" from President Roosevelt, demanding to know what the President's policy is on convoys, citing "several weeks of word-twisting phrases of avoidance and indirection" as one of the reasons for his demand.

In his telegram to the President, as he reported it from the floor of the Senate, the Gentleman from New Hampshire said: "On different days of the past three weeks you have alternately advised the people that the suggestion of convoys was too absurd to talk about, that a plan for convoys was under consideration, and, finally, that you know more about the subject than anyone else but do not care to discuss it."

While he was asking the President for the facts concerning our intentions of conveying or not conveying, Senator Tobey took occasion to remind Mr. Roosevelt of a statement made by the President to the public in a radio broadcast: "Your government has no information which it has any thought of withholding from you."

With labor strikes, the question of getting supplies to Britain and her allies has probably been the weightiest problem confronting America these last few weeks. Certainly an observing America, vitally concerned with its future, deserves to know what may be going on in the higher places affecting that future.

But there are other considerations which enter into this matter of getting supplies to Britain—a course to which we are committed and to which most of the country subscribes. It is time to realize that we are no longer living in an era when warfare follows the pattern of World War days. A convoy, alone, is not sufficient protection to insure safe passage of shipping from this country to Great Britain.

It is not unlikely that President Roosevelt knows all this, and when his answer comes to Senator Tobey, as it will come, either directly or indirectly, the conveying of ships will be but a part of the whole.

Convoys involve the mass passage of a fleet of merchant ships under protection of naval vessels, with the objective of preventing enemy submarines preying on the cargo carriers. This was great stuff in World War days, when destroyers were worthy foes of undersea boats. But today's problem goes far beyond. Not only submarines, but also, and perhaps more threatening, are Nazi airplanes operating against merchant shipping. Moreover, the problem involves not only protection of the ships, themselves, from aerial bombs, but also the protection of docks and harbors where vessels must discharge their cargoes.

So, while Senator Tobey is asking the President for a frank statement on the subject of convoys, it might be well for him to ask, too, what plans, if any, the President has for the use of United States military and naval planes in protecting Britain's lifeline—for a fight between aircraft might precipitate war as easily as a clash between naval vessels.

Spring Cleaning

This is the time of year when something which mere man can't comprehend moves the womenfolk to an indignant, wholehearted campaign against dirt, dust and dinginess, and which results in a temporary disruption of normal life while painting, paperhanging, furniture rearranging and scrubbing run their course.

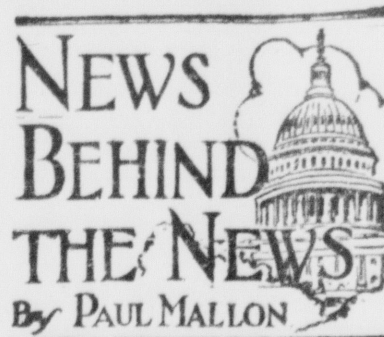

To the last year's crop of bridegrooms, we give this word, as an old-timer who has witnessed spring cleaning campaigns over a period of years: Don't complain—just wait. Within a few days it will all be past, and you'll admit that the fuss and inconvenience of living from the shelf of the refrigerator, and climbing over obstacles to reach your favorite armchair were worth the satisfaction which will come to you as well as your wife in living in a home that's fresh and bright as spring, itself.

At the same time, we call your attention to the fact that, while we may be somewhat annoyed, we males are much better off than were our fathers, who were called on to take down the parlor stove, beat the rugs and bring the old icebox up out of the cellar. Modern conveniences such as the vacuum cleaner, cleaning services, expert workmen to do our heating and painting and repair jobs, year-round refrigerators and so on have made spring cleaning a relatively painless experience.

The Evidence Is Plain

When Sir Christopher Wren had finished St. Paul's Cathedral in London, they carved his memorial on a marble plaque and set it in the wall. "If you wish to see his monument," they wrote, "look about you."

Now that plaque lies beneath the tumbled ruins of that grand house of worship. The workers who clear away the wreckage will find the plaque, but the wreckage itself is now a monument to another man whose tools are not hammer and chisel, but bomb and bullet.

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Washington, April 24—Barred doors could not conceal the shock of House Ways and Means committee members at the secretly submitted new treasury tax program. Chairman Doughton actually stamped up and down the floor talking to himself while the Morgenthau aides were telling Congress what rates to impose on whom. Other members of the committee were similarly upset and worried.

Only a few days before, they (including Republicans) had all promised to restrain their personal viewpoints for amicable cooperation to raise $3,500,000,000 more by a general one-third increase in taxes.

What floored them was the failure of Morgenthau's new dealers to stick to the general figure. The one-third increase turned out to be a sevenfold increase in one instance at least. (A committee member worked out one rate, claiming it would increase certain income taxpayers from $11 to $77). One hundred per cent increases in excise taxes were frequent, including the tax on automobiles. A 66 per cent increase on gasoline was suggested.

There was even some suggestion of more reforming. A crackdown on banks and insurance companies, to make them pay taxes on their tax exempt bonds, seemed to be offered in a complicated way that all committee members could not fully understand at first hearing.

Doughton's official excuse for barring the doors was that he did not want to stir up and frighten the taxpayers because the treasury program was only tentative.

Fact is Doughton had in his sleeve another plan devised by the non-partisan experts of the joint congressional committee on taxation. These experts have been working with Morgenthau's new dealers apparently seeking an agreement on a program both could support. When agreement was found impossible the alternatives had to be presented to the committee.

But the Democrats under Doughton's leadership voted to keep the doors closed apparently in hopes the treasury new dealers would see their mistakes and revise their plan before presenting it in public.

First serious offender against Leon Henderson's new edict banning further increase in prices is the treasury department. Morgenthau's proposed hikes up to 100% in excise taxes will increase the cost of gasoline, cigarettes, liquor, automobiles and many other daily consumed products. But Morgenthau is not likely to be indicted in the Defense Commission or even receive a letter from Henderson the new deal economists explain it this way.

The increased taxes are on what the government calls luxury goods. The government itself is, therefore, only the worst price increasing offender, in lines upon which the economy wants to hold down consumption in war-deficient times.

The moderate one-third increase in corporation taxes should not increase prices (this is still the new deal economists' talking) because the corporations will merely pay the increase out of their net earnings, as they are paying the recent union wage increases. It is officially doubted that profits of corporations will be decreased by the tax increase because of expanded operations.

These taxes are not the end. The treasury economists devised them as expedients for the interim period until the country reaches full production and employment. At that time, they say, it will become economically necessary to levy taxes at the source of income or impose system of forced savings. This will be done not only to finance the war but to keep the increased national income out of the buying market in which it could compete with government defense spending.

The talk runs toward figures of 10 to 20% as a tax on payrolls or a payroll seizure in force next winter if the world situation runs along as at present.

Under no conditions will a sales tax be contemplated. The only word Roosevelt passed to the congressional tax makers was that he did not want the new money raised by that means. The administration considers a sales tax except on luxuries like cigarettes and gasoline inequitable, although it would accomplish with one stroke their two purposes, first to restrain buying and also to raise money.

James Dangerfield of World War Relief Fame Dies in Portugal Today

Lisbon, Portugal, April 24. —(AP)—James Dangerfield, 65, who was active in relief work in Europe during the World War and reconstruction years, died Wednesday in San Jose hospital of heart disease.

Dangerfield, an industrial engineer, served with the Belgian Relief Committee from 1914 to 1917. France made him a chevalier of Legion of Honor and he also was awarded the crown of Belgium and star of Rumania.

A former captain of the United States Army, he had resided for several years at Pau, France, and came to Lisbon several years ago enroute home.

Lisbon representatives of the Committee on Food for the Small Democracies called their New York headquarters for instructions on disposition of the body, but it was believed burial would be here.

Born in Elgin, Ill., he was survived by a sister, Mrs. Henry F. Hall of Hartford, Conn.

Increasing Help to Britain Told House of Lords

London, April 24.—(AP)—Lord Beaverbrook, British Minister of Aircraft Production, informed the House of Lords that "nearly 1,000 assembled American and Canadian aircraft have been handed over to the R. A. F."

Beaverbrook said that "up to this moment we have only lost one aircraft on the ferry service between America and this country."

Beaverbrook said the British Admiralty had received "within the last few days 95 aircraft by sea, 355 tons of airplane parts and 326 engines."

"Five new types of engines have been brought into use, of which the Sabre is perhaps the greatest engine produced," he said.

The "flow of aircraft from America is increasing rapidly," Beaverbrook declared.

"I am prepared to say with authority that they are fine machines and that they are ready to fly and fight."

100 Percent Reserve

"Of five principal operational types we have reserves now in storehouses scattered far and near—a reserve total equal to the total operational strength. That is 100 per cent reserve."

"Do not suppose that we are satisfied with this reserve," the minister of aircraft production added.

"We think the R. A. F. is entitled to a reserve of 200 or even 300 per cent and that ought to be the object and purpose of the aircraft industry."

British "fighter and bomber airplanes are being sent to America," Beaverbrook said.

"Practically all operational types are being sent out, some by sea and some by air. Very shortly Americans will be in possession of every British type and will have available several types of engines."

FAST BOATS READY

Washington, April 24.—(AP)—Navy Secretary Knox said that about 20 fast motor torpedo boats were ready for delivery to Great Britain as a part of the lend-lease program, and possibly were on the way now.

Knox said the boats, capable of speeds of more than a mile a minute, were to be shipped across, rather than undertaking the trans-Atlantic trip under their own power.

The navy had 28 available, Knox said, and the British were supplied from these. Other "mosquito" craft, mostly of a type 70 feet long and able to speed 70 or more miles an hour, are under construction.

Knox told his press conference also that the navy was negotiating with Canada for construction in Canada of a number of warships, probably of the new British Corvette type, such as are used to escort convoys.

Any combat Canada would build for the U. S. Navy, Knox said, might be turned over to Great Britain under the lend-lease system. The decision, he said, would be made when they neared completion.

Cooperative Program

Aside from providing Canada with needed dollar exchange, Knox said the arrangement would tend to reinforce United States construction.

He said the arrangement was projected as a part of the cooperative program worked out last week-end between President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Mackenzie King of Canada.

To questions about American aid to Britain and the battle of the Atlantic, Knox said he understood that the larger and faster cargo ships had been seeking independently to run the gauntlet of nazi U-boats and bombers for some time.

Knox said the United States, like "every nation in the world," suffered from a shortage of anti-aircraft guns but that mass production was starting on shorter-range weapons. He called the navy's new five-inch anti-aircraft gun the "best in the world."

Other witnesses who told of two per cent salary assessments included Bert Davenport of Murphysboro, a guard at Menard prison; Leo Grandone, Olive Field and Mrs. June Freeman, all of Springfield.

Davenport also charged that some prison guards who took civil service examinations in 1939 carried written answers to the questions with them into the examination room. Dean G. Curry, city service commission secretary, denied questions could have been known in advance to applicants.

Action Started Today to Exempt Foods From Taxation in Illinois

Springfield, Ill., April 24—(AP)—Rep. Frank Houcek (R.-Cicero) filed in the Illinois House today a resolution that would carry out Governor Green's proposal for a vote of the people in the 1942 election on the question of exempting foods from the state sales tax.
The Houcek resolution would submit to a referendum the question of amending the constitution of 1870 so as to remove the legislature's power to levy any kind of tax on foodstuffs.
Governor Green recently said he favored submitting the constitutional question of the foods exemption at the next regular election in 1942. He said he had discovered that foods could not be removed from the scope of the sales levy now because of the uniform taxation clause of the constitution.
Administration officials have estimated the sales tax on food amounts to between $25,000,000 and $30,000,000 annually.
The Houcek resolution was referred to the House executive committee.

Rector Sent to Mental Hospital After Blaze

Detroit, April 24—(AP)—Probate Judge Joseph A. Murphy Wednesday committed the Rev. William C. Bryant, rector of St. Thomas Episcopal church here, to Eloise hospital, after investigation of a fire which damaged the church last Saturday.
Assistant Prosecutor William R. Bolo, who said the investigators found a can of kerosene in the rectory after the fire, said Bryant had been under treatment following brain injuries received in an automobile accident in December, 1939.

The Rev. Bryant had served parishes in Illinois and in Ontario.

Would Limit Handbooks to Cities Over 50,000

Springfield, Ill., April 24—(AP)—A move to limit Rep. Emmett McGrath's proposal to legalize handbook betting on horse racing to the nine cities in Illinois having more than 50,000 population was under consideration by the House license committee today.
The nine cities over 50,000 population are Chicago, Cicero, Decatur, East St. Louis, Evanston, Oak Park, Peoria, Rockford and Springfield.
The legislature passed a bill legalizing handbooks in 1935 but the measure was vetoed by Governor Horner.

er essential costs, but all non-defense expenditures should be "re-examined with a magnifying glass." Explaining the magnitude of the new taxes, Morgenthau estimated that defense spending alone would total $12,000,000,000 in the next fiscal year.
Discussing the application of new taxes, Morgenthau said:
"One group may urge that new taxes be imposed on labor, but not on business, while another group may argue that the rich and prosperous can afford to bear the whole load."

All People Should Help

"Both kinds of advice should be disregarded. The job before us is so big that all the American people must help to carry it out, in proportion to their ability to pay."
"We all want labor to earn their wages, the farmer to have his proper share of the national income, and business to make a fair profit."

Morgenthau was summoned for a broad outline of his views on raising enough new revenue to place two-thirds of the government's operating costs on a cash basis.

Two Plans Prepared

The committee already has before it a treasury plan which would increase existing income taxes as much as six times in some cases, and a counter-plan which would be somewhat less drastic on most of those who make less than $20,000 a year.

This counter-plan was reported to provide for a surtax on all net incomes above $2,000. The surtax rates would range upward from 6 per cent. In addition, taxpayers would have to pay the present 10 per cent defense surtax, so the effective starting rate would be 6 1/2.

The initial surtax rate under the treasury plan would be 11 percent (12 1/2 when surtax was added).
In computation of the surtax, the two plans have radically different methods. Under the treasury's proposal, the surtax would not become effective until personal exemptions had been deducted from net income. These exemptions might range from $800 for a bachelor to as high as $6,000 for a married couple with 10 children. The counter-plan, however, would fix a flat $2,000 exemption for everybody before surtaxes applied.

Differences Outlined
Examples of what difference the two programs would make (in round figures):

A single man with a net income of $1,000 would pay a total tax (normal plus surtax) of $29 under the treasury plan and $4 under the committee staff proposal. The latter figure is his tax under present law.
A childless married couple with net income of $3,000 now pays $31. The staff plan would increase this to $97, the treasury to $152.

The treasury plan, on the other hand, would be less severe than the reported staff proposal on married couples with two minor children and a net income ranging from $2,000 to $4,000. For instance, such a couple with a $3,000 net income, now paying no tax, would be subjected to a levy of $24 under the treasury plan and $66 under the other.

With a $4,000 net income such a couple would pay $180 on the treasury basis and $167 on the staff plan. The present tax is $35.
All these examples assume that all net income is earned and an earned income credit of 10 percent was claimed in figuring the normal tax but not the surtaxes.

Fake Sergeant Given Penitentiary Sentence

Dubuque, Iowa, April 24—(AP)—"Sergeant O'Leary," who duped 35 Iowa State Training School boys into thinking he was enlisting them in the army, pleaded guilty in Federal court today to a charge of impersonating a Federal agent and was sentenced to three years in the Federal penitentiary.
"O'Leary," later identified as Marion Taylor of Oelwein, Iowa, last Jan. 7 brought the 35 lads to Fort Des Moines in a bus, then disappeared after news pictures were taken.
The boys were returned next day to the state institution.

Thirteen Killed When Munitions Explode in Azores Airplane Base

Horta, the Azores April 24—(AP)—Twelve soldiers and a civilian were killed and nine soldiers were injured by a munitions explosion which destroyed a barracks Tuesday at this mid-Atlantic Portuguese stopping place for trans-Atlantic air liners.
The blast occurred only 10 minutes after most of the garrison had departed for morning drill.
Military authorities suggested the explosion might have resulted from spontaneous combustion in black powder used in saluting shells.
The Pan American Airways base was undamaged.
One prominent plane manufacturer has reduced its commercial line to two models of one plane with the upholstery fabric choices from 276 to 34 and leatherettes from 118 to seven.

Robber Suicides After Gun Fight in New York City

New York, April 24—(AP)—A chambermaid was beaten, a veteran traffic patrolman was shot and a robber killed himself to avoid capture today in an attempted holdup and gun battle sequel at the New York Athletic Club on Central Park.

One companion of the suicide bandit later was captured and a third escaped by fleeing on foot on business, while another group may argue that the rich and prosperous can afford to bear the whole load.

All People Should Help

"Both kinds of advice should be disregarded. The job before us is so big that all the American people must help to carry it out, in proportion to their ability to pay."
"We all want labor to earn their wages, the farmer to have his proper share of the national income, and business to make a fair profit."

Time People of U. S. "Got Excited", Says Sec. Wickard

New York, April 24—(AP)—The people of the United States were told by Secretary of Agriculture Wickard today that it was high time they "got excited" about the critical stage of world affairs.
"Nowadays," he cabinet officer reminded, "ostrich nations don't last very long."

The secretary offered this commentary on the progress to date of the European war:
"The story in this conflict, so far as the democracies are concerned, has been a story of 'too little and too late.' Millions of Americans are getting sick of that story. They see clearly the results of appeasement and unpreparedness."

Declaring American agriculture's stake in a British victory to be "very great", the secretary said that should the axis win, "we might as well kiss our export market for farm products goodbye."

"That would mean sweeping readjustments in agriculture. The changes would be immediate and drastic and they would mean complete regimentation and government control for all agriculture and all farmers."

republics after the outbreak of the war. Consequently, there was no expectation that Germany would agree to respect an area three times that width, particularly after Hitler's warning that British ships would be torpedoed wherever they were met.

Further Delay in Mine Strike Settlement Seen as New Labor Board Acts

(By The Associated Press)
Further delay in getting soft coal mines back into operation was predicted today by coal operators and the United Mine Workers, while reports to the war department blamed the stoppage for "drastic" curtailment of defense production.
Charles O'Neil, speaking for northern mine operators, and John L. Lewis, UMW chief, agreed in statements at New York that certification of the dispute to the Defense Mediation Board by Secretary Perkins earlier today could only mean "further delay."

The board summoned participants in the dispute to a session at Washington tomorrow morning. War department officials said reports from army branches throughout the country blamed the stoppage for "drastic" curtailment in the output of ammonia, steel, wool, cotton textiles and other products essential to the defense effort.

Situation in Far East

In the Far East, Britain heavily reinforced the main body of Australian troops which reached Singapore on Feb. 28.

Dispatches from the British naval stronghold said a big transport—it may be the former trans-Atlantic liner Queen Mary—arrived there with a "formidable" contingent of fighting men.

Domei, Japanese news agency, broadcast a report that "a secret military agreement between England and the Chungking (Chinese) government would appear to have been concluded for the defense of Burma".

Briton Impatient

Even though reports in London said the pace of the motorized Nazi drive had slackened, Britain waited impatiently and in an increasingly critical mood for word of the Grecian finale and was prepared to hear the worst.

Already lost were all of northern Greece and Greece's northwestern army of about 250,000 men which had accepted unconditional surrender under the combined might of Germany and Italy. The Bosphorus and Dardanelles—vital straits between the Black and Mediterranean seas—loomed possible as the next axis objective.

Nazis Press Turkey

In London, the Laborite Daily Herald quoted foreign diplomatic circles as saying Germany had demanded that Turkey exchange military control of the straits for a slice of Greek Thrace and was pressing the Ankara government for a quick reply.

Some observers connected this with the reported Nazi occupation of the Greek islands of Lemnos and Samothrace near the strategic straits and in Istanbul, diplomatic circles yesterday said they expected German ambassador Franz von Papen would bring "some proposal" when he returns to Turkey from Berlin.

These sources said they believed Turkey would turn thumbs down on any request for passage of German troops through Turkish territory but might agree to close the Dardanelles to foreign warships.

Overnight, Nazi planes struck again at the coast of southern England and Germans said the port of Plymouth was air-raided for the third successive night. Both there and at Portsmouth, they said, a rain of bombs touched off fires and explosions.

The Royal Air Force hammered away again at the German battleships Scharnhorst and Gneisenau in an attack on the naval base at Brest, France. Raids against the warships have been staged intermittently since March 30.

The Balkan upheaval has interrupted the smooth run of his assault on the British Isles—the crucial operation of the whole war.

The Nazis have lost heavily in casualties and in equipment. They have disrupted agriculture throughout the great food producing countries of the Balkans. Yugoslavia is a cripple on their hands—her fertile lands untilled, her industries stopped, her communications destroyed or dislocated.

What is perhaps more important, the Hitlerites have burned up rivers of precious gasoline, and used lubricating oil which they couldn't afford.

Prize-Winning Singers Give Concert Here

An appreciative audience of some 200 music lovers attended last evening's concert by the Capital University prize-winning glee club of Columbus, Ohio in the Loveland Community House auditorium. Members of Immanuel Lutheran church and their pastor, the Rev. C. L. Wagner, sponsored the local appearance of the singers, who are on their thirtieth annual concert tour of the east and mid-west.

Organized in 1906, this concert group has reached almost national acclaim through frequent tours and the unusual musical ability and versatility of its 32 members. Much consideration is given by Director Wilbur Crist, professor of music at Capital University, in the selection of the glee club's personnel. Not only musical ability, but scholastic standing are absolute "musts" for membership in this championship group.

The repertoire of the club is wide and varied in mood, ranging from the capricious madrigals of Morley, and the ponderous "Reverie," a dramatic and descriptive tone poem by Sird Edward Elgar, to the Brooklyn madrigal, "The Boogie with the Big Bass Voice," and impressive sacred selections.

The American Way of Life

The Rochelle elementary school will present the annual health and physical education program on Friday evening, April 25th at Central school auditorium, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Swan is in charge of the presentation. She has been assisted by the regular classroom teachers of the faculty.

The "Blue Streak" has this to say about the "American Way of Life":

"In these days of fast-moving history, each of us tries to hold on to some one thing that is sane and sensible. For the majority of us, that thing so precious is the American way of life.

"To each of us the phrase, the American way of life, has some different shade of meaning, for our democracy is made up of many different ideals and beliefs. But whether our racial roots extend back to Norway and Sweden, Spain, England, Germany, Africa or any of the other countries of the old world, we have gone through the 'melting pot' and come out as Americans.

"It is said that the American youths of today are the hope of the world. For when this present world holocaust has ended, the boys and girls who are not thirteen and fourteen, who are in grade and junior high school, will be the citizens who will either uphold or destroy the American way of life. For a way of living can be destroyed only by those who possess it.

"As we go about this business of living of work and play—of putting on our program, yet us judge what we have been given and value it accordingly.

"The American way of life is ours by inheritance—it will remain ours only through effort and devotion." — From Blue Streak.

The American Way of Life program will be presented as four units. Unit One will portray National Enlightenment, brought about by Academic Freedom and former Child Labor laws. To portray Academic Freedom, a group of three numbers will show the added features education offers today.

Tommy Koritz Honored

Tommy Koritz, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Koritz, received a special delivery letter Tuesday afternoon from the American Legion, Department of Illinois, stating that he was eighth grade state winner in the annual American Essay contest, sponsored by the Legion. Three other winners, representative of grade 6, grade 7 and grade 9, were also chosen, and the four children are to be rewarded with a six-day trip to Williamsburg, Virginia, and Washington, D. C. They will each receive a gold medal, also. Tommy will leave on Sunday morning, April 27, for Chicago, and will return the following Saturday. The children will travel under the care of E. M. Labonati, chairman of the Americanism committee, of the Illinois Department of the American Legion.

The two-hundred-word essays were written on the subject: "A Great American". After becoming local eighth grade winner, he was rated first in the district, 1st in the division, then first in the state of Illinois. Tommy chose the life of Daniel Webster for his subject. The winning essay follows:

"There is one man in the history of our country about whom we do not hear a great deal, 'Black Dan', for so his friends called Daniel Webster, grew up from a single country lad to become a great lawyer and noted statesman, who worked untiringly to promote and strengthen the Union.

Webster was one of America's most brilliant orators. He became a well known figure in the House of Representatives. By his powerful oratory and deep, resonant voice Webster made his greatest arguments for the Union and the Constitution in a reply to a radical speech by Haynes.

Webster hated abolitionists and those who advocated nullification. He fought every measure which would tend to cause friction between the North and South and thus saved the country from a Civil War in 1820.

In the capacity of congressman Webster served his country just as well, if not better, than he would have in the office of chief executive. Webster did not believe in slavery; but because he held the constitution supreme, he was willing to compromise upon that then tender subject.

Webster's honesty may be compared to that of those two most famous sons of America, who are object lessons for all children, Washington and Lincoln.

Because he held his country far above personal gain, because he used his great gift of oratory to further the cause of freedom, I consider Daniel Webster one of America's greatest sons.

To help your children grow!

Enriched
Pillsbury's Best Flour

adds extra vitamins and iron to your everyday baked foods!

Now you can help protect your family's health in three essential ways without a single added purchase! You can give them iron and B-vitamins they need every day. You can do it "automatically," in your daily baking, by simply selecting enriched Pillsbury's Best when you shop for flour. As simple as that!

Yet see what added benefits you give your family: iron, which helps build blood; vitamins which their bodies need to make the proper use of energy foods (carbohydrates)—which is essential to sound nerves, good appetite, proper growth in children, the ability to thrive on hard physical work!

All that, for your family now, at the low cost of fine white flour!

Remember—good-baking flour, like Pillsbury's Best, is still the same good-baking flour after it has been enriched—but inferior flour, even if it is enriched, is still inferior flour. And remember something else—enrichment itself must be done carefully, so that each bag will be uniformly enriched. The same strict milling standards which make Pillsbury's Best a fine "baking" flour also make it a uniformly enriched flour!

★ It's the same fine, dependable PILLSBURY'S BEST...now enriched!
★ NO CHANGE IN FLAVOR ★ NO CHANGE IN APPEARANCE
★ NO CHANGE IN BAKING QUALITIES

WHAT IS THE QUICKEST WAY A CHICKEN CAN TRAVEL?

That all depends on where the chicken is going. However, if the chicken is bound from a farm to a consumer's dinner table, there are two routes it can take.

One way... and the usual way... rivals a trip on a slow freight that makes every stop. First, the chicken is purchased from a farmer by a country packer who dresses it for market. The packer sells it and ships it to a wholesaler or receiver. The wholesaler or receiver next sells it and sends it on to a jobber. Next the jobber sells it and routes it to a retailer. All this selling and traveling is expensive. Each time the chicken moves one step nearer the end of the trail from farmer to storekeeper, up goes the price the consumer must pay for the chicken.

There is a streamlined way chickens can travel from farm to consumer. It is the A&P way. The fresh chickens you buy in your A&P Super Market are purchased in the country by A&P's expert buyers and rushed to the store for our customers' selection. No costly "traveling expenses," no unnecessary handling charges or needless middlemen's profits burden the price of the chicken that travels the quick and direct A&P route. And because these expenses are eliminated, the family that buys A&P chickens gets more and better "bird" for its money.

This is but one of countless examples of how, for more than 80 years, A&P has combated unnecessary expense in making and distributing foods... to the end that its stores can provide more and better foods for more people for less money.

Latest and greatest economy in distributing foods is the new A&P Super Markets, the food department stores where you can buy groceries, meats and fish, baked goods, produce and dairy products, all under one roof. Two thousand items share the cost of storekeeping... and five to fifteen times as much food is sold as in A&P Stores of a few years ago... at one low storekeeping expense. This means that prices are low throughout A&P Super Markets every day... and that you save on your entire grocery bill.* Buy all your food needs at your A&P Super Market and see for yourself how you can save. It's fun to go A&P Super Marketing!

*You gain nothing from "special bargains" when you are charged higher prices for other things to make up for them. At A&P Super Markets you get a low average price on all foods offered. Thus you keep your complete food bill low.

It hasn't rained in two weeks. The dust is very penetrating. The soil seems to be more powdery than Illinois dirt. Our throats are raw and our eyes are sore, but gradually we get used to it. Even the elements seem to take a part in our conditioning program. The Medics don't give our colds and sore throats a chance to develop into anything serious. Captain Holladay from Amboy is stationed just across the street from us and you may be sure that he looks out for the Lee county boys.

The first cook in Company F is Ralph Steckels, a former Dixon man. Ralph is looking good and is as brown as a nut. We all are getting to be very husky soldiers. The change isn't very noticeable to us but we will soon be able to compare our appearances with some boys who haven't been in this climate.

Next Tuesday morning forty-seven selectees join the enlisted men of Company A. Their quarters and bedding are all prepared and they will be welcomed at the train by Sgt. Al Bieschke. We are all anxious to see some new faces. By this time next week they will be getting used to being members of the best outfit in the regiment.

Some more of our boys fired on the range last week. Shooting the M1 rifle, Sgt. Clinton Woodruff qualified as sharpshooter, and Sgt. Joe Heffer as marksman. Corp. Frank Stanaitis and Pfc. Ed Voss qualified as marksmen. Firing the Springfield, Sergeants Bob Miller and Jim Van Matre qualified as marksmen. Pfc. Tom Sutton and Ed Croft qualified as marksmen. With the Browning automatic Pfc. Max Fordham qualified as sharpshooter and Pfc. Charles White as marksman. Next week the remaining men who haven't fired yet go to the range. On Saturday, April 19th, Company A went on guard in their regular turn. One of the most thrilling pictures of men in uniform is the formal guard mount and regimental parade. The guard detail of Company A marched to the parade ground where the guard is formed and inspected. Then the entire regiment of thirteen hundred men, led by the regimental band, passed in review. The guard roster was as follows:

Officer of the Day, Lt. Murray Frazer.
Officer of the Guard, Lt. John Halberg.
Sergeant of the Guard, Sgt. Robert Wilhelm.
Corporals of the Guard, Corp. Frank Stanaitis, Corp. Milton Crabtree, Pfc. Edwin Voss.
Privates of the Guard, Pfc. Robert Stouffer, Pfc. Gilbert Friske, Pfc. Nelson Camery, Pfc. Lawrence Jenks, Pfc. Charles White, Pfc. Charles Zinke, Pvt. Scott Smith, Pvt. Winslow Smith, Pvt. Frank Shoemaker, Pvt. Sylvan Jeanblanc, Pvt. Melvin Moser, Pvt. John Bailey, Pvt. Howard Bruckner, Pvt. Rodney Buckman, Pvt. William Lally, Pfc. Thomas Sutton, Pfc. Leslie Mielke, Pfc. Edward Croft, Pvt. Stephen Gall, Pvt. Raymond Hunter, Pvt. Donald Kreisch.
Orderly of the Guard—Pfc. Max Fordham.

Government Acts to Discipline Airplane Pilot for New Stunt

Washington, April 24—(AP)—Acting upon a complaint by Secretary Knox, the Civil Aeronautics Board has moved to discipline an airplane pilot who flew a photograph over the British battleship Malaya as it came into New York harbor for repairs on April 6.

The board directed Hugh C. Robbins, holder of a commercial pilot certificate, to appear before an examiner and show cause why his certificate should not be suspended or revoked.

Robbins is accused of these violations of civil air regulations: 1. Flying below 500 feet over New York harbor.

2. Flying below 1,000 feet over congested part of New York City.

3. Flying closer than 500 feet to another airplane in flight.

"PEACE BE WITH YOU"

Last night over the coffee cups and milk glasses which ended an enjoyable dinner, a peace treaty was "signed" in the banquet hall of the Lincoln hotel in Sterling where one of the eight best high school basketball teams in the state was host to Dixon, one of the two squads which defeated the Purple and Gold of Sterling this year. Of course, the older boys who plotted them on hand, too, and the press nosed its way in also. But it was the boys' evening and the traditional basketball rivalry which reaches white heat during the season cooled off to the point where the lads were planning double dates in inter-city style before the evening was ended. Principal Roscoe Eades of Sterling Township high school arranged the affair, a response to a similar banquet held here last year and Coach Ted Scheid presided as a master of ceremonies. Having a voice in the proceedings were Coaches A. C. Bowers, C. B. Lindell, Principal B. J. Frazier all of Dixon. Speaking in behalf of Sterling were Coaches Curtis Brandau and Bud Terhune and Assistant Principal U. R. DeVoe, while Joe Ward, Sterling postmaster, contributed his remarks as the voice of fandom. Yes, the press did a little bickering back and forth with Harry Kidd of the Sterling Gazette "in the ring" with your own bedtime story teller. If the walls have ears we may go back there in the heat of the next basketball season just to find out what was said last night, but in the meantime we'll remember the event as a very pleasant get-together of the co-champions of the North Central conference with a lot of good "off the record" tag chewing.

OFFICIAL STARTER

W. E. Beamblossom, local merchant, will be the official starter at the Dixon-Rochelle dual track meet here this afternoon. Beamblossom was formerly the track coach at Ames, Ia., and used to start many of the Iowa state meets.

ROCHELLE GOLFERS WIN

Rochelle's high school golfers, following the pattern set by the tennis players, last night beat Sterling 12-6 in a match over the Twin City course at Sterling. Princeton players competed with the two teams and in a comparison of scores the Tigers won from Sterling 161 to 71. In the Rochelle-Sterling summaries: DeGryse (R) defeated Hubbard (S); Griesser (S) beat Maxson (R); Hayes (R) beat Benson (S); Brennan (R) beat Cies (S); Keller (S) defeated Binz (R) and Motter (R) defeated Brown (S).

FOSTER TO SPEAK AT OREGON BANQUET

Coach Harold E. (Bud) Foster, head basketball coach of the University of Wisconsin national champions, will be the principal speaker when the Better Business Association of Oregon entertains the basketball team at a banquet at the Country Club May 8. The eagles won the Rock River conference title this past season.

TODAY'S CALENDAR

Highlighting the local sports scene today is the Dixon-Rochelle dual track meet here which is scheduled to start about 4 o'clock. It will be the Ducks' second meet of the season after a big triumph over Princeton Tuesday night. Other events today and tonight include: Bob Hicks of Harmon and Paul Hess of Woonsocket to fight (not each other) in the boxing card at Sterling; Paw Paw's baseball team seeks a second straight win in a game at Shabbona and the Rochelle golfers meet East Rockford. Take the one nearest you.

AMBOY WINS PRACTICE MEET

Amboy's 79 to 29 victory over Franklin Grove in a dual track meet Tuesday was termed as a "practice" event. Coach Jim Dominetta's boys won first and second in all of the running events. Tomorrow the Irish will be hosts to the Polo Marcos in a Rock River conference dual meet.

TROUBLE, TROUBLE

Larry Fenner, ace track performer of Sterling who turned in a 10.2 century and a 22.8 furlong at the Rock Island district meet last year, is over the 20-year age limit this season and the news is one of the blows to Coach Ted Scheid's track hopes. Bobby Wolf, also of Sterling who won the half mile in the Rock Island district event, is on the sidelines with glandular trouble and it is doubtful if he'll be ready for the district meet this year.

LOU MEANS TO SPEAK AT AMBOY

Lou Means, athletic director and track coach at Beloit college, will be the principal speaker at the Amboy high school athletic banquet to be held Thursday evening, May 8. An excellent program is planned for the event and Coaches Jim Dominetta and Bill Welty will award letters to the high school athletes.

TRACK MEET OFFICIAL

Milton Vaughn of Rockford, who needs no introduction in this town where he once lived, will be one of two Rockford men who will act as officials at the Beloit Relay Carnival on May 2. Charles Beyer, athletic director of West Rockford high will also be an official.

PRINCETON SETS MEN'S

Princeton tennis players went to Sterling yesterday to walloper their hosts 7 to 0. The winners lost only one set in sweeping the five singles and two doubles matches and their victory makes them serious contenders for the conference title.

O'MALLEY'S ALL-STARS

James O'Malley, local bowling promoter who has an average around the 130s, has picked an "all-star" team to bowl in a match game at Oregon Saturday night. Guess who the all-stars are? Four bowlers from The Telegraph team (Shultz, Uebel, Wells and Kestel) and where the heck is the fifth? It is us.

WALTERS PITCHES CINCINNATI TO FOURTH STRAIGHT WIN OVER CUBS

By JUDSON BAILEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

The big trains are getting the right of way now on baseball's main line after a little more than a week of confusion.

The World Champion Cincinnati Reds, with the best pitching staff in the major leagues, have just won two shutouts from the Chicago Cubs. The St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers are making their moves at the same time.

The Cleveland Indians have squeezed into a tie for the American League lead. The New York Yankees are climbing up and the Boston Red Sox are sliding down.

Bucky Walters pitched the Reds to their fourth straight triumph yesterday with a five-hit 5-0 conquest of the Cubs. The day before Johnny Vander Meer clipped the same club 1-0 on four hits. Thus the Reds are rolling true to form and haven't even tapped Monte Pearson, their pitching pickup from the Yankees.

Giants Are Pace-Setters

The New York Giants still are setting the pace in the National League, but with a faltering gait that may give way at any moment. They edged out the Boston Bees 5-4 yesterday by means of a four-run rally in the sixth inning. However, the tip-off is that they have used 23 pitchers in nine games.

The Brooklyn Dodgers plastered a 4-0 shutout on the Phillies with Whitlow Wyatt scattering four hits, never closer than one every other inning. In his last previous start he had held the Bees to three safeties and apparently he is signed for a big season. The Dodgers suffered a handicap when young Pete Reiser was hit on the right cheek by a ball pitched by Ike Pearson, but x-rays showed no bones were broken and he may be back in the lineup by the time the club has to defend itself against the western invasion next week.

The St. Louis Cardinals penned the Pittsburgh Pirates again 3-1 on the three-hit pitching gem of Sam Nahon, who was the "sleeper" in last year's trade that sent Joe Medwick to the Dodgers. The only run against the young lawyer was unearned, coming on two errors in the eighth inning after the Cards had completed their scoring.

Cleveland cooked up a four-run inning to help Bob Feller get a 5-2 decision over the St. Louis Browns, who evidently don't have any "pitch stealers". The fireballers kept eight hits spaced fanned eight and walked seven.

At the same time the Yankees handed the Red Sox their third straight defeat 4-2 on Phil Rizzuto's homer with one on in the 11th inning. Up till then the game was a tight hurling duel between Vernon Goetze, the old lefthander, and Charley Wagner, Boston rookie.

Hal Newhouser, who kept the Detroit Tigers in striking position through the early months of last summer, pitched eight-hit ball while his teammates found their batting eye and crushed the Chicago White Sox 13-5.

The hard-hitting Philadelphia Athletics crammed nine runs into one inning for an 11-7 triumph over the Washington Senators, who made a dozen hits themselves but committed five errors. The A's 15-hit offensive included two homers by Catcher Frankie Hayes, one with the bases loaded.

BREMER, KEENAN TAKE SECOND IN DOUBLES EVENT

Week End Will Bring Another Big Drive On Local Alleys

Records in the second annual Rock River Valley Handicap Bowling tournament now in progress at the Dixon Recreation have reached a new high this year with 2940 top score for the team event, 1258 for the doubles and 702 in the singles.

Oscar Witzleb, who won the singles in the recent Rock Island tourney, boosted the all events top score last night when he posted 611, 629 in the doubles and singles events together with his 598 team score for a new high all-events total of 1838.

Bill Keenan and Ben Bremer soared to second berth in the doubles event with counts of 364-409 and a bulging game of 458 for 1231. Keenan topped 629 with a handicap of 93, and Bremer scored 602 with a handicap of 45.

Other New Doubles Counts
Other new doubles counts were made by Royal Fitzsimmons and Ned Giannoni with 1175 for 11th place, J. Hawker and A. Ostrander with 1161, are also good for a position on the board.

New singles worthy of mention were as follows: Wayne Williams posted games of 180-201-191, handicap 69 for a smashing total of 641, good for fifth place in standings. J. Hawker collected games of 178-207-209, handicap 81, total 635 and ninth place; Oscar Witzleb totaled 173-179-211, handicap 66, total 629 for eleventh; Ray Wilbur scored 192-177-191, handicap 60 for 620, also in the pay dirt.

Other singles scores sure to cash were Royal Fitzsimmons 600 even and Ned Giannoni 608. Fitzsimmons' games were 162-185-172, handicap 81, total 600. Giannoni rolled 175-188-170, handicap 75 for a full count of 608.

Pennants Tell Story

Chicago—A blue pennant flies from the Wrigley Field flagpole when the Cubs win, a white one when they lose.

ROCHELLE NET TEAM WINS 3rd STRAIGHT MEET

It begins to look as if the Rochelle tennis players are using their nets to seine victims of their skill as last night the Hub city lads chalked up their third straight victory of the season by thumping East Rockford, 4 to 3, on the home courts.

It was the first match of the season for the Rockford invaders and they won only two singles matches and one doubles.

Scores were as follows: Claude Haselton (R) defeated Paul Widell (ER) 206-6-3 and 7-5; Stanley Larson (R) defeated Eugene Sjostrom (ER) 6-1 and 6-1; Lyle Kunde (R) defeated Gustaf Widell (ER) 6-3 and 6-2; Donald Schell (ER) defeated Harry Rass (R) 6-2, 5-7 and 6-3; Richard Mertz (ER) defeated Willard Haas (R) 6-3 and 7-5.

In the doubles Lyle Kunde and Stanley Larson of Rochelle defeated Gustaf Widell and James Dowling of East Rockford 6-1 and 6-2. Warren Franzen and Donald Elvidge of East Rockford defeated Bob Harris and Claude Haselton of Rochelle 6-2, 3-6 and 6-2.

HITTERS BLAST PITCHERS IN ASSOCIATION

By The Associated Press

Pitchers traditionally are supposed to be "ahead" of hitters when the baseball season starts, but you would never know it from a study of yesterday's American Association box scores.

The pitchers were blasted far and wide in the three games played, 20 moundmen yielding 77 hits and 43 runs. The Minneapolis-Louisville game was rained out.

Milwaukee, opening up after a poor start in the first week, shelacked four Columbus pitchers for 19 hits and a 15 to 7 victory. The Brewers rolled up a 7-0 edge in the first three innings, but the Birds tied it in the sixth. Milwaukee met this challenge with another onslaught, scoring seven runs in the seventh to settle the issue. The Brewers used three pitchers.

Nine On Mound

Nine hurlers took a turn on the mound in St. Paul's 7 to 5 victory over Indianapolis. Each team got only 10 hits but the pitchers were a path to the hill, five Indians trying vainly to stop the Saints who built up a 7-1 lead in five frames. The Indians rallied for four runs in the seventh but were stopped thereafter. The victory put the Saints in a tie for second place with Indianapolis and Columbus behind leading Louisville.

Kansas City also began climbing up with a 5 to 4 margin over Toledo. Aaron Robinson's eighth inning homer with a runner on base won the game after the Hens had taken a one-run edge in the seventh. Each team used two pitchers.

Today's games and probable pitchers: Minneapolis (Hatten) at Louisville (Sayles); Kansas City (Gumpert) at Toledo (Wirkkala); St. Paul (Hims) at Indianapolis (Starr); Milwaukee (Sullivan) at Columbus (Dickson).

ALL-EVENTS CHAMPION WHO SET ALL-TIME HIGH IN '37 ROLLS IN ABC TONIGHT

St. Paul, Minn., April 24—(AP)—Maxie Stein, Belleville, Ill., who set the ABC all-time high in the all-events of 2,070, will be back pitching in the American Bowling Congress world championships tonight.

Maxie left his home town for Hollywood, shortly after he had averaged 230 for his nine games at New York in 1937 and will pilot the Warner Brothers pictures in the national pin classic.

Gene Gagliardi, originally from Mount Vernon, N. Y., will try to share the spotlight with Maxie. Gagliardi annexed the singles title at New York with a 749 total while Stein was setting the all-time high mark. Gagliardi is now a Hollywood resident.

Only one major change was made in the high ten standings during Wednesday's play. Cines of Salem, Ore., moved into eighth berth in the team event last night in scoring 3,003.

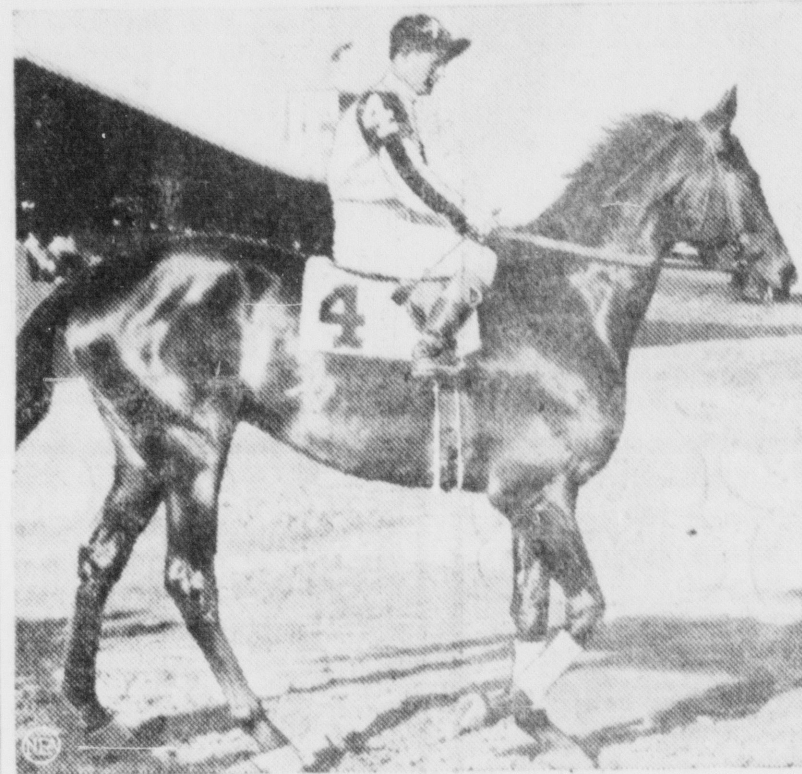

Best effort in the two-man event yesterday was a 1,226 by Remus Lytle and John Longnecker of Des Moines. Second best mark was a 1,222 by James Seis and Father Michael Waslewski of Denmark, Wis.

DERBY CANDIDATES TO GET TESTS TODAY

Lexington, Ky., April 24—(AP)—Whirlaway, Our Boots, two other three-year-olds and the mud have a date today which is expected to produce the favorite for the Kentucky Derby May 3.

The "other" horses drew scant attention as racing fans began converging on nearby Keeneland track to see last year's top money-winning juveniles compete for the fifth time in the $10,000-added, mile and an eighth Blue Grass stakes.

Drifts Into Derby Debate

Robert Morris, Nick Wall up.

Though he ran in bandages in front and was drifting out in hot run down homestretch, J. Fred Byers' Robert Morris served notice he must be figured in Kentucky Derby, May 3, by beating older horses in Excelsior Handicap at Jamaica. Shouldering only 100 pounds, Robert Morris galloped one mile and one-sixteenth in creditable 1:44.3-5. He is son of Jacopo from Arch Queen, by Archaic, Jockey is Nick Wall.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ

New York, April 24—(The Special News Service)—One of the Boston papers started something when it charged Notre Dame is raiding Boston College football talent.

New England very much het up about it...Frank Leahy denied everything from South Bend. Right up to this minute, Joe Louis' ring earnings over season and a half year stretch are $1,798,463.46.

And those pay days with the Messrs. Baer, Simon, Conn and Nova may shoot him over the two million mark... Bad weather cost the Tigers 30 grand during the first week of the season.

Sport Tabloid

That's Lynn Waldorf moaning about his Northwestern line... Attention scouts: There's another Joe DiMaggio playing the outfield for the New York U. nine... Golfer Francis Ouimet, one of the new owners of the Bees, aspired to be a ball player, but soured on the idea after walking three miles to the nearest playing field every day for two years... Every other club in the National League is after Tom Hughes, young Philly right-hander... Music lovers can tune in next Saturday night if they want to hear Charlie Grimm play a left-handed banjo and Lou Novikoff a right-handed harmonica on that barn dance show.

Al Galento, on tour as a wrestling referee, left his wallet containing ten century notes under his pillow in a Green River, Wyo., hotel. The loss wasn't discovered until 24 hours later in Tremont, Utah... P. S.: the hotel found the dough, shipped it along and it caught up with Tony at Salt Lake City.

Leiber Leaves for Chicago to Talk With Cubs Bosses

Tucson, Ariz., April 24—(AP)—Hank Leiber, sole remaining major league holdout, took a plane for Chicago today to talk things over with Jim Gallagher, Cubs general manager, but the ace outfielder's demeanor was anything but indicative that a deal was in the air.

The husky blond, a National League fixture since 1935, said he was making the trip at Gallagher's request and at his own expense.

"I have made no commitments whatsoever and intend to return here immediately unless the Cub management sees its way clear to meet my salary demands," declared Leiber, who has the reputation for driving a hard business bargain. He is understood to be asking an increase over his 1940 salary, reputedly $13,000.

Leiber has been a perennial holdout since he went up from Nashville in the Southern Association after hitting 427 during the 1934 season. He played with the Giants in 1935, 1936, 1937 and 1938, and was traded with several other players to the Cubs in 1939.

He hits around 300 consistently. Last year he batted 302 in 117 games, piling out 17 homers. During his "sit-down" protest against the Cub terms, Leiber has kept in shape by working out with the University of Arizona baseball team, of which he was a member in 1932.

HELP FROM DETROIT

Cleveland—Five former Detroit Tigers wear Cleveland uniforms. They are Outfielders Gerald Walker and Beau Bell, Catcher Gene Desautels and Coaches Earl Whitehill and George Susce.

GREENBERG'S CALL SADDENS DETROIT FANS

Detroit, April 24—(AP)—Doleful talk today in Detroit—at any cigar store, tavern or street corner—"Guess the Tigers can't win now."

"None, not with Greenberg out of there."

The inevitable had come. Hank Greenberg, great slugger of the Detroit Tigers, received his formal orders for induction into the army.

The summons to Hank was not unexpected, of course, but some ardent fans had held stubbornly to a hope that somehow conditions might have changed so Hank could stay around and hit home runs as usual.

As it is, however, the American League's reputedly highest paid player at $50,000 a year has only 13 playing days left this season with Detroit, and the Tigers definitely are no longer expected to retain their championship.

To Repeat May 7
Local draft board No. 23 notified Greenberg to report for induction May 7 at the induction center here. On that day the Tigers have planned to raise their league pennant to the top of the flag pole in Briggs Stadium.

The departure of Greenberg means the breaking up of the most powerful home run combination since the time of Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig of the Yankees. It leaves Rudy York alone as the swat king of Detroit.

The cleanup spot probably will fall to York, who is currently batting fifth behind Greenberg, or it might go to Barney McCosky, at this time hitting .400. To plug the gap in the outfield Manager Del Baker will move in from the bench Bruce Campbell, sure fielder and steady hitter.
